

Jurupa Unified School District

POSITION: SPEECH AND LANGUAGE PATHOLOGIST

BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF POSITION:

Provides diagnostic, prescriptive and therapeutic services to students exhibiting language, speech, or hearing disorders.

QUALIFICATIONS:

Appropriate certification to perform services as a Speech and Language Pathologist.

MAJOR DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES:

1. Provides appropriate language, speech and hearing assessment of referred students. E
2. Provides specialized instruction and services to students with language, speech and/or hearing disorders. E
3. Coordinates rehabilitative, therapeutic, or educational management for students with disorders of language, speech and/or hearing. E
4. Provides consultative services to students, parents, teachers or other school personnel.
5. Serves as a member of Student Study Team(s) as appropriate.
6. Prepares written reports of assessments administered. E
7. Assists in the development of Individual Educational Programs for students with exceptional needs. E
8. Re-evaluates students at least annually to determine appropriateness of placement and to ascertain progress. E
9. Provides inservice training to parents and school employees in language, speech and hearing issues.
10. Maintains a schedule which includes 80% direct instruction and/or collaboration, and 20% student assessment, coordination of Individualized Education Programs, and Student Study Team screenings.
11. Performs other related duties as assigned.

DIRECTLY RESPONSIBLE TO: Administrator of Education Support Services

Personnel Services
September 4, 1997
Revised September 2007 (title change only)