

PERSONNEL

SUBJECT: Accountability for Property and Reports

The District reserves the right to withhold the final pay warrant of a departing employee until the employee's supervisor has certified that the employee has accounted for all tools, materials and/or equipment checked out to him/her and has submitted required reports.