

Title I, Part A School-Parent Compact 2024-25

The Del Sol Academy, and the parents of the students participating in activities, services and programs funded by Title I, Part A, agree that the School-Parent Compact outlines how the parents, the entire school staff, and the students will share in the responsibility for improved student academic achievement and the means by which the school and parents will build and develop a partnership that will help children achieve the State high academic standards (ESSA Section 1116[d]).

Describe how the school’s responsibility to provide high-quality curriculum and instruction in a supportive and effective learning environment that enables the children served under Title I, Part A to meet the challenging State academic standards, and the ways in which each parent will be responsible for supporting their children’s learning; and participating, as appropriate, in decisions relating to the education of their children and positive use of extra-curricular time (ESSA Section 1116[d][1]):

The Del Sol Academy staff in conjunction with parents of students participating in activities, services and programs funded by Title 1, Part A, agree that the School-Parent Compact outlines how the parents, the entire staff, and the students will share in the responsibility for improved student academic achievement and the means by which the school and parents will build and develop a partnership to help children achieve their maximum potential towards mastering rigorous academic state standards (ESSA Section 1116[d])). The following is what we all agree to:

Describe how the importance of communication between teachers and parents on an ongoing basis through, at a minimum the following means (ESSA sections 1116[d][2][A-D]):

- (A) parent-teacher conferences in elementary schools, at least annually, during which the compact shall be discussed at the compact relates to the individual child’s achievement;
- (B) frequent reports to parents on their children’s progress;
- (C) reasonable access to staff, opportunities to volunteer and participate in their child’s class, and observation of classroom activities; and
- (D) ensuring regular two-way, meaningful communication between family members and school staff, and to the extent practicable, in a language that the family members can understand.

This compact is an agreement between three parties: the parent, the student and the teacher. It lists what each party needs to do to support student learning at Del Sol Academy. The staff and parents at Del Sol Academy have high expectations of themselves and of the students at the school. In an effort to provide the highest quality instructional program to the students and to show how the school and family are working together to educate the children at Del Sol, the staff and parents agree to implement this compact.
