

Title I, Part A School-Parent Compact 2025-26

The Nueva Vista Continuation High School, and the parents of the students participating in activities, services and programs funded by Title I, Part A, agree that the School-Parent Compact outlines how the parents, the entire school staff, and the students will share in the responsibility for improved student academic achievement and the means by which the school and parents will build and develop a partnership that will help children achieve the State high academic standards (ESSA Section 1116[d]).

Describe how the school's responsibility to provide high-quality curriculum and instruction in a supportive and effective learning environment that enables the children served under Title I, Part A to meet the challenging State academic standards, and the ways in which each parent will be responsible for supporting their children's learning; and participating, as appropriate, in decisions relating to the education of their children and positive use of extra-curricular time (ESSA Section 1116[d][1]):

The staff and administration of Nueva Vista High School are responsible for:

- Creating a safe, supportive, and effective learning community for students and a welcoming respectful and environment for parents and guardians.
- Providing high quality curriculum and rigorous instruction in a supportive and effective learning environment. Giving students the necessary help needed to meet and exceed the State's performance standards. Using academic learning time efficiently.
- Respect cultural, racial, and ethnic differences.
- Supporting home school relationships and improve communication by respecting the rights of limited English proficient families to receive translated documents and interpretation services to ensure participation in their child's education. Notifying parents of the procedures to arrange an appointment with their child's teacher or other school staff member. Sending information related to school and parent programs, meetings, and other activities to all parents of participating students.
- Supporting parental involvement activities as requested by parents; and advise parents of their right to file a complaint.
- Providing reports on student progress and grades on a regular basis
- Providing parents, the opportunity to become involved in the development, implementation and revision to the Parent Involvement Policy and this School-Parent-Student Compact.

The parents/caregivers of Nueva Vista High School are responsible for:

- Monitoring their child's attendance and ensuring their child arrives at school on time, as well as follow appropriate procedures to inform the school when their child is absent.
- Checking regularly on their student's academic progress.
- Being open and receptive to ideas to support their students' academic success.
- Encourage their child to follow school rules and regulations and discuss this compact with their child. Participating, as appropriate, in the decisions relating to their child's education and overall well-being. Communicating with teachers, school staff about educational needs and stay informed about their education by responding to all notices received from the school or district.
- Sharing responsibility for the improved academic achievement of their child to ensure graduation from high school.

Describe how the importance of communication between teachers and parents on an ongoing basis through, at a minimum the following means (ESSA sections 1116[d][2][A-D]):

- (A) parent-teacher conferences in elementary schools, at least annually, during which the compact shall be discussed at the compact relates to the individual child's achievement;

- (B) frequent reports to parents on their children’s progress;
- (C) reasonable access to staff, opportunities to volunteer and participate in their child’s class, and observation of classroom activities; and
- (D) ensuring regular two-way, meaningful communication between family members and school staff, and to the extent practicable, in a language that the family members can understand.

Parents have instant access to their students’ academic progress via Parent Connect, an online grading & data platform. Conferences may be initiated by parents or teachers at any time during the school year. The counselor meets with all students to review their academic plan as well as behavior and attendance expectations.

- By the end of each quarter, parents are notified of final grades, but also receive progress reports mid-way during the term via Parent Connect.
- Parents may contact staff via, phone, email, or office visit. They may request an appointment with teachers and/or administration. Parents also can become involved in the School Site Council, the English Language Advisory Committee, and volunteer in the classroom and school events.
- Parents receive notification about important events and deadlines via Parent-Square, an online messaging system. Parents may contact the office or email teachers to set up appointments/conferences to discuss school related matters including academic progress, behavior, and attendance concerns. All communication from school to home is provided in the family’s home language. Translation is also provided at parent meetings.

This Compact was established by Nueva Vista Continuation High School on 10/24/25, and will be in effect for the period of October 2025- October 2026. The school will distribute the Compact annually to all parents and family members of students participating in the Title I, Part A program on, or before: 11/1/25.

James Wandrie, Principal
Name and Title of Authorized Official

Signature of Authorized Official

10/24/25
Date

California Department of Education
 April 2020