The student is not eligible for AB 2121.
  The student is eligible for AB 2121.

SAFEGUARDS & NOTIFICATIONS TO STUDENT AND EDUCATIONAL RIGHTS HOLDER

Ed rights holder initials	Student initials
		The district is prohibited from requiring eligible student to graduate before the end of his/her fourth year.
		Graduation under AB 2121 does not entitle the student entrance into a 4 year university/college. The youth is eligible to attend a community college and utilize a course of study that will allow the student to transfer to a 4 year postsecondary institution.
		Graduation under AB 2121 may affect the student’s eligibility for entrance into the military.
		If student is eligible for the exemption, they are not required to accept the exemption and cannot be denied enrollment in courses for which they are otherwise eligible.
		If the student is not eligible to graduate under AB 2121 upon initial evaluation; the student shall be granted an exemption any time if he/she requests and qualifies for it in the future.
		Once the AB 2121 exemption has been granted it cannot be revoked by the school district.
