

Title I, Part A School-Level Parent and Family Engagement Policy 2023-24

Sunnyslope Elementary School with parents and family members, has jointly developed, mutually agreed upon, and distributed to, parents and family members of participating children in Title I, Part A programs the following requirements as outlined in ESSA sections 1116(b) and (c).

Describe how parents and family members of participating children in Title I, Part A programs are involved in jointly developing, distributing to, a written school parent and family engagement policy, agreed upon by such parents for carrying out the requirements in ESSA Section 1116(c) through (f) (ESSA Section 1116[b][1]):

Sunnyslope Elementary has developed a Title I, part A parental involvement policy with input from Title I parents. The school site annually involves parents in the joint development and agreement of the policy, which is reviewed as part of the Single Plan for Student Achievement (SPSA) and through site advisory groups such as, School Site Council (SSC), English Advisory Committee (ELAC), Gifted and Talented and Special Education advisories. Sunnyslope has also established a Booster Club. The policy is updated periodically to meet the changing needs of parents and the school. It has distributed the policy to parents of Title I students. The policy will be provided in the informational materials that are distributed to parents at the beginning of the year. The policy describes the means for carrying out the following Title I parental involvement requirements.

Describe how parents and family members of participating children in Title I, Part A programs, may amend a parent and family engagement school policy that applies to all parents and family members, if necessary, to meet the requirements (ESSA Section 1116[b][2])

Parents have the opportunity to voice their concerns through SSC meetings or ELAC meetings. As part of our advisory council, parents can suggest/recommend changes be made to our School Site Council. Principal also holds an annual Title I meeting.

Describe how the Local Educational Agency (LEA) involved has a school district-level parent and family engagement policy that applies to all parents and family members in all schools served by the LEA, and how the LEA may amend that policy, if necessary to meet the requirements (ESSA Section 1116[b][3]):

A flexible number of meetings will be held at varying times based on parent needs. Translation services will be provided, if needed. Meetings will be held in a variety of formats.

Describe how parents and family members of children participating in Title I, Part A programs can, if they find that the plan under ESSA Section 1112 is not satisfactory to the parents and family members, and the LEA shall submit the parent comments with the plan when the LEA submits the plan to the State (ESSA Section 1116[b][4]):

An annual survey of parents is conducted to assess needs, determine barriers, and evaluate the effectiveness of the instructional program. Included as part of the annual review is the Single Plan for Student Achievement through School Site Council, English Learner Advisory Committee, Gifted and Talented and Special Education

- Parents are provided NWEA data reports at every grading period

Describe how the schoolwide program plan, ESSA Section 1114(b), is not satisfactory to the parents of participating children in Title I, Part A programs, submitting any parent comments on the plan when the school makes the plan available to the LEA (ESSA Section 1116(c)[5]):

If requested by parents of Title I, Part A students, the school provides opportunities for regular meetings that allow parents to participate in decisions relating to the education of their children (ESSA 1116 [c][4][C]. Also, through informal requests for meetings, SST Meetings, 504 meetings, back to school nights, SSC, and ELAC.

This policy was adopted by the Sunnyslope Elementary School on October 9, 2023 and will be in effect for the period of October 2023 through October 2024.

The school will distribute the policy to all parents of students participating in the Title I, Part A program on, or before: November 2023.
