

Title I, Part A School-Level Parent and Family Engagement Policy 2022-23

Jurupa Valley High School with parents and family members, has jointly developed, mutually agreed upon, and distributed to, parents and family members of participating children in Title I, Part A programs the following requirements as outlined in ESSA sections 1116(b) and (c).

Describe how parents and family members of participating children in Title I, Part A programs are involved in jointly developing, distributing to, a written school parent and family engagement policy, agreed upon by such parents for carrying out the requirements in ESSA Section 1116(c) through (f) (ESSA Section 1116[b][1]):

Jurupa Valley High School's parents and family members are involved in jointly developing and communicating a written school parent and family engagement policy through various means in order to obtain their input on school goals and initiatives. Annually, JVHS conducts elections, as required, for parents to participate in School Site Council (SSC) and the English Learner Advisory Committee (ELAC), and invites all parents and community members to attend SSC meetings via social media posts, website advertisements, Parent Square notifications, fliers, and hard copy postings of meeting agendas outside of school entry points. Parents and family members are also invited to participate in Parents with Pride meetings that provide valuable information as well as the opportunity to engage in two-way communication with other parents and school officials.

Describe how parents and family members of participating children in Title I, Part A programs, may amend a parent and family engagement school policy that applies to all parents and family members, if necessary, to meet the requirements (ESSA Section 1116[b][2])

Jurupa Valley High School, served by Title I, Part A funds, held annual meetings at convenient and well advertised times (both the morning and late afternoon), where parents and family members of participating children were invited and encouraged to attend to inform parents of their school's participation under Title I, Part A. At those meetings, parents were presented with an explanation of their rights to be involved in school matters and discussions. All input obtained was taken to School Site Council for discussion.

Describe how the Local Educational Agency (LEA) involved has a school district-level parent and family engagement policy that applies to all parents and family members in all schools served by the LEA, and how the LEA may amend that policy, if necessary to meet the requirements (ESSA Section 1116[b][3]):

Jurupa Valley High School, served by Title I, Part A funds, holds a variety of meetings at convenient and well advertised times (morning, afternoon, evening), to welcome and encourage parent voice and involvement at JVHS. Most meetings will be held in-person, however, a few, such as PIQE, will be held both in-person and virtually as well as in the morning and evening. Some topics for general meetings may include: the schools' vision and mission, schoolwide learner outcomes (PRIDE), social emotional learning, counseling information (college applications, career information, financial aid, scholarships), school activities and governance, booster groups, drug awareness education, and much more.

Describe how parents and family members of children participating in Title I, Part A programs can, if they find that the plan under ESSA Section 1112 is not satisfactory to the parents and family members, and the LEA shall submit the parent comments with the plan when the LEA submits the plan to the State (ESSA Section 1116[b][4]):

Jurupa Valley High School's parents and family members of participating Title I, Part A programs, are encouraged to be involved in the planning, review, and improvement of programs under Title I, Part A, via invitation to attend the annual School Parent Compact and School Parent and Family engagement Policy meeting. Parents and families may also be involved by attending School Site Council (SSC), and/or ELAC and DELAC meetings, Parents with Pride, or by communicating directly with school officials. Parents and families may also be involved by participating in various parent groups on campus including FFA, athletics, VAPA, AVID, ASB, Link Crew, and by completing school district surveys, and much more.

Describe how the school served by Title I, Part A funds holds an annual meeting, at a convenient time, to which all parents and family members of participating children shall be invited and encouraged to attend, to inform parents of their school's participation under Title I, Part A and to explain the requirements and the rights of the parents to be involved (ESSA Section 1116[c][1]):

Jurupa Valley High School provides parents and family members of participating children of Title I, Part A programs with timely information about programs funded under Title I, Part A. These programs and/or materials include: course guides and syllabi, regularly scheduled meetings that include an open forum for two-way communication, information about academic assessments such as CAASPP, AP testing, common assessments, and college/career exams, to name a few. JVHS accommodates all parent requests to engage in meaningful discussion about curriculum and student assessments.

Describe the steps that the school takes to offer a flexible number of meetings, such as meetings in the morning, afternoon, evening or other ways and may provide, with funds provided under Title I, Part A, for transportation, child care, or home visits, as such services relate to parental involvement (ESSA Section 1116[c][2]):

Jurupa Valley High School provides parents and family members of participating children of Title I, Part A programs with timely information about programs funded under Title I, Part A. These programs and/or materials include: course guides and syllabi, regularly scheduled meetings that include an open forum for two-way communication, information about academic assessments such as CAASPP, AP testing, common assessments, and college/career exams, to name a few. JVHS accommodates all parent requests to engage in meaningful discussion about curriculum and student assessments.

Describe how parents and family members of participating children are involved, and in an organized, ongoing, and timely way, in the planning, review, and improvement of programs under Title I, Part A, including the planning, review, and improvement of the school parent and family engagement policy and the joint development of schoolwide program plan under ESSA Section 1114(b), except that if a school has in place a process for involving parents in the joint planning and design of the school's programs, the school may use that process, if such process includes an adequate representation of parents of participating children (ESSA Section 1116[c][3]):

Jurupa Valley High School provides parents and family members of participating children of Title I, Part A programs with timely information about programs funded under Title I, Part A. These programs and/or materials include: course guides and syllabi, regularly scheduled meetings that include an open forum for two-way communication, information about academic assessments such as CAASPP, AP testing, common assessments, and college/career exams, to name a few. Parents and family members may bring forward questions and concerns to Jurupa Valley High School by attending School Site Council and/or ELAC meetings, Parents with Pride events, or by communicating directly with school officials. The information obtained will be placed on the SSC and/or ELAC meeting agendas for consideration of amendment approval, as appropriate. JVHS accommodates all parent requests to engage in meaningful discussion about curriculum and student assessments.

Describe how the school is providing parents and family members of participating children of Title I, Part A programs: timely information about programs under Title I, Part A; a description and explanation of the curriculum in use at the school, the forms of academic assessment used to measure student progress, and the achievement levels of the challenging State academic standards; and if requested by parents, opportunities for regular meetings to formulate suggestions and to participate, as appropriate, in decisions relating to the education of their children, and respond to any such suggestions as soon as practicably possible (ESSA sections 1116[c][4][A-C]):

Parent participation in the School Parent and Family Engagement Policy presentation on September 14, 2022. Additionally, should changes to funding allocations arise, they will be presented to SSC for consideration, discussion, and approval. Jurupa Valley High School's parents and family members are involved in jointly developing and communicating a written school parent and family engagement policy through various means in order to obtain their input on school goals and initiatives. Annually, JVHS conducts elections, as required, for parents to participate in School Site Council (SSC) and the English Learner Advisory Committee (ELAC), and invites all parents and community members to attend SSC meetings via social media posts, website advertisements, Parent Square notifications, fliers, and hard copy postings of meeting agendas outside of school entry points. Parents and family members are also invited to participate in Parents with Pride meetings that provide valuable information as well as the opportunity to engage in two-way communication with other parents and school officials.

Describe how the schoolwide program plan, ESSA Section 1114(b), is not satisfactory to the parents of participating children in Title I, Part A programs, submitting any parent comments on the plan when the school makes the plan available to the LEA (ESSA Section 1116[c][5]):

This policy was adopted by the Jurupa Valley High School on September 14, 2022 and will be in effect for the period of August 2022 - July 2023.

The school will distribute the policy to all parents of students participating in the Title I, Part A program on, or before: September 21, 2022.

Jurupa Valley High School's Title I, Part A School Parent and Family Engagement Policy was developed jointly and agreed on with parents and family members of children participating in Title I, Part A programs on September 14, 2022. The School will distribute the policy to all parents and family members of participating Title I, Part A students annually on or before { rCA_SchIFamEngag_PolicEffect}.

Name and Title of Authorized Official

Signature of Authorized Official

9/19/22

Governing Board Approval Date

California Department of Education
April 2020